Delgado and LSU Health New Orleans Forms Partnership

Delgado Community College Charity School of Nursing and LSU Health New Orleans School of Nursing have entered into an agreement to increase the number of nurses with bachelor's degrees and get them into the workforce sooner. The Early Admission Registered Nurse (EARN) Program will grant earlier access for students pursuing an Associate of Science in Nursing (ASN) at Charity School of Nursing to the LSU Health New Orleans Bachelor of Science in Nursing program. Students can be concurrently enrolled in Delgado's associate nursing degree program and LSU Health New Orleans' RN to BSN degree program. The first group of students was admitted to the EARN Program this fall. The application deadline for the Spring Semester is October 1, 2018. For more information, contact the Charity School of Nursing at (504) 571-1270.

Delgado Graduates Twenty High School Students in Dual Enrollment

On May 15, 20 seniors from Warren Easton Charter High School in New Orleans received the Residential Electrician Certificate of Technical Studies (CTS) from Delgado Community College. This is the third cohort of Warren Easton students to complete the program at Delgado.

Campus Visits Include Class Observations

Prospective students now have the opportunity to observe classes in session when they request campus visits. On the campus visit request form, prospects can choose a class to observe on the same day they meet with an enrollment advisor.

SAVE THE DATE!

Delgado Community College will host its 8th Annual Discover Delgado Day on March 28, 2019. This event showcases our various academic programs to students who are interested in pursuing their education after high school. With campus tour stops and live demonstrations given by our faculty and staff, your students will be sure to discover the great things Delgado has to offer.
