Daughters of Charity Health Centers and Delgado Partner to Provide Behavioral Health Services

Daughters of Charity Health Centers (DCHC) and Delgado Community College are offering behavioral health services on the college's City Park Campus four days a week for students, faculty, and staff.

This partnership derives from an expressed need for behavioral health services at Delgado. Students, faculty, and staff also have access to additional medical services offered at DCHC's ten health centers located throughout metro New Orleans.

Delgado Celebrates Advanced Technology Center Groundbreaking at West Bank Campus

Delgado Interim Chancellor William Wainwright was joined by Governor John Bel Edwards, State Senator Troy Carter, and educational, industry, government and economic development officials for a groundbreaking ceremony on May 31, 2019 to establish a new $13 million Advanced Technology Center at the Delgado's West Bank Campus in Algiers. The center will house academic STEM programs including classrooms, laboratories and faculty offices. The 37,000-square-foot facility is slated to open in May 2021 at the corner of Shirley Drive and Constellation Street, on land acquired by Delgado from the Algiers Development District (ADD).

Delgado intends to increase enrollment at the West Bank Campus and enhance its partnerships with key industries by fostering innovation, education, and technology in an academic environment at the new center. The investment will give the school the capacity to teach 2,000 more students in addition to its current enrollment of 2,500. The center will focus on the healthcare, petrochemical, digital media and transportation logistics industries; create a workforce pipeline for the West Bank's industrial needs; and ensure access to higher education.
